If the shareholder does not disclose this personal data upon registering for the annual general meeting, the custodian bank in question will furnish TAG Immobilien AG with it. The access password assigned to the shareholder or his or her representative and the IP address from which the shareholder or his or her representative uses the online annual general meeting service are transmitted to the Company by the service provider responsible for organising the virtual annual general meeting. The personal data of shareholders and shareholder representatives is processed solely for the purpose of ensuring the exercise of their rights in respect of the virtual general meeting and also in this respect only to the extent absolutely necessary to achieve this purpose. The legal basis for processing the data is Article 6 (1) (c) of the GDPR. TAG Immobilien AG only stores this personal data for as long as this is necessary for the aforementioned purpose or to the extent that the Company is entitled or required to store personal data on the basis of statutory provisions. The storage period for data collected in connection with the annual general meeting is normally three years or less.

The service providers whose services TAG Immobilien AG utilises to organise the annual general meeting receive from TAG Immobilien AG only that personal data which they require to perform the designated services and process this data solely in accordance with TAG Immobilien AG's instructions.

In addition, personal data is made available to the shareholders and shareholder representatives as well as third parties in connection with the annual general meeting within the scope of the statutory requirements. In particular, if shareholders are represented at the virtual general meeting by a voting representative appointed by the Company, their names are disclosed, and the shareholders concerned entered in the register of participants in the annual general meeting prepared in accordance with Section 129 (1) Sentence 2 of the German Stock Corporation Act, indicating their name, place of residence, number of shares and type of ownership. This data can be viewed by participants of the annual general meeting during the annual general meeting and thereafter by shareholders for a period of up to two years in accordance with Section 129 (4) of the German Stock Corporation Act. With regard to the transmission of personal data to third parties in connection with the announcement of shareholder requests for additions to the agenda as well as counter motions and election proposals by shareholders, reference is made to the information set out above in Section V.8 "Shareholders' rights under Sections 122 (2), 126 (1) and 127 of the German Stock Corporation Act".

Shareholders and shareholder representatives may ask the Company for information on what personal data it stores under Article 15 of the GDPR, ask for this data to be corrected in accordance with Article 16 of the GDPR or deleted in accordance with Article 17 of the GDPR, restrict the processing of their personal data in accordance with Article 18 of the GDPR and request in accordance with Article 20 of the GDPR that certain personal data is transferred to them or a third party whom they nominate (right to data portability) Shareholders and shareholder representatives may exercise these rights free of charge against TAG Immobilien AG using one of the following channels:
